The exciting moments after the crowning of Queen Pam.

1971

The 1971 Homecoming Queen was crowned at the half time of the football game which was played against L.D.F. Four senior candidates were chosen by the football team and voted on by the student body. Escorts were the senior members of the football team, with the candidates drawing for their escorts.

The cheerleaders stirred up excitement on Thursday night with the traditional pep rally and bonfire.

A window painting contest was sponsored by the student council with first place of $15 going to the freshmen class and second place of $10 won by the junior class.

Semco and L.D.F. met in the traditional rival with Semco coming out with an overwhelming victory 42-6!

Queen Pam and her royalty reigned over the dance held afterward. The royal court was Anne Stubbs, and her escort Kevin Potter, Gary Orstad who escorted Pam Paul, Diane Harris and her escort Vic Veren, and Danita Kinder and her escort Jim Merritt.

The big night is finally here.

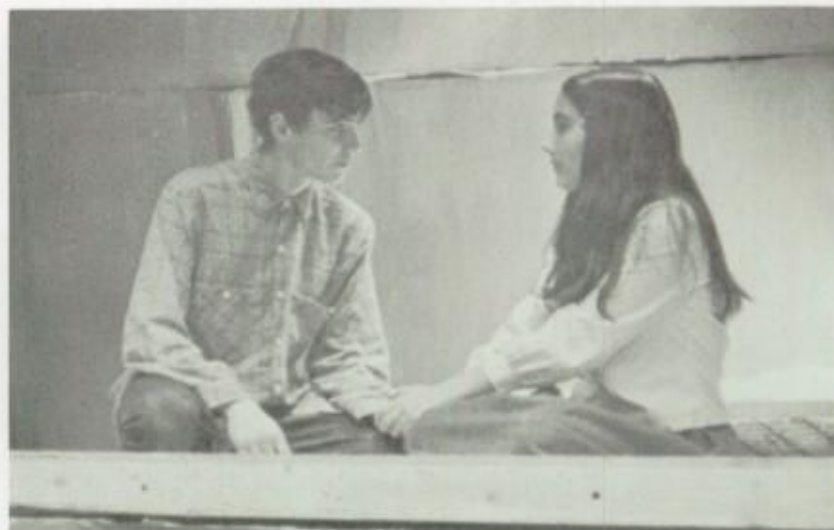

The seniors after choosing their speaker, paying off debts to the class, deciding on a motto, a flower, and what to do with their money, underwent the formal ceremonies of Baccalaureate and Commencement. The class colors of ice blue and navy blue were carried out in the caps and gowns. The senior girl's trio, consisting of Mary Parker, Paula Gaunt, and Janna Coleman, accompanied by Denise Maytag, sang two songs. The class motto, what I must do is all that concerns me, not what people think, was the outline for the speaker, Dr. Ray Pough of Drake University. When diplomas were handed out and awards given each senior was handed a red rose to take to their parents. The class sponsor was Mr. Koepnick. At 1:00 a.m. Friday morning, the class left for a very enjoyable trip to Colorado.

The band department started the year with a new instructor, Steve Ainsworth. Before marching at the first football game the members went through many hours of practice before school.

The marching band marched at all of the home football games and participated in all pep meetings. There were forty students in the marching band.

The concert band began when the football season was over and there were forty-eight students participating. The band gave four concerts during the year including one given for the elementary students. Members of the concert band were also involved in playing in the pep band which played for all of the home basketball games.

This spring the marching was once again formed to participate at the annual Tulip Festival held at Pella on May 13.

Explanations at one of the first meetings.

The Annual staff composed of editors Denise Maytag, Doris Herman, and Pam Paul, have provided many different attractions in this years' edition of "The Cougar." After switching to a new company and having many new ideas presented to us, we set to work experimenting and using many of our own, new ideas. With the help of our sponsor, Mr. Beane, we have put it all together for you.

Doris points out new ideas to Carol Locker.

The seniors left for Colorado Friday at 1:00 a.m. by bus, and arrived in Colorado Springs at 4:30 p.m. Friday afternoon. After finding our rooms, getting unpacked, and going swimming, we toured Seven Falls, Pikes Peak, the Cheyenne Zoo, the Hall of Presidents, the Air Force Academy, the Pottery Shop, Garden of the Gods, a Ghost Town, went bowling, ate a lot, and had little sleep. Our chaperones were Tom and Margaret Meyers and Russ and Alma Coleman. We really enjoyed having them as our chaperones. It was worth the magazine sales, the coat checks, the bake sales, car washes, and candy sales!!!
